BREAKING OUT OF THE MAN BOX
A DISCUSSION ON HEALTHY RESPECTFUL MANHOOD
Tuesday, March 29
7:00 PM
Laurel Hall 102

Join us as we welcome Tony Porter, internationally recognized author, educator, and activist, who will speak about the social construction of masculinity in America and men’s role in ending gender-based violence.

People of all genders are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Co-sponsored by Student Activities Leadership Office, Fraternity & Sorority Life, and Athletics.

BROKEN PROMISES
Wednesday, March 30
7:00 PM
Student Union Theatre

Amidst the backdrop of urban Latin hip hop music, rhyme, and choreography, this bilingual play reveals the shocking truth of how quickly and easily young women are ensnared in the world of sex trafficking.

Sponsored in partnership with PRLACC.

Co-sponsored by El Instituto, ODE, WGSS & Human Rights Institute.

PROJECT UNBREAKABLE
Monday, April 4 – Friday, April 8
11:30 AM – 2:00 PM
Homer Babbidge Library

UConn Project Unbreakable is part of a larger national photography project that aims to encourage the act of healing through art. Our annual display features photographs of gender-based violence survivors quoting their assailants, as well as paintings, drawings, and poetry written by survivors or those who love them.

If you, or someone you know, would like to be photographed or submit a work of art to be displayed in a semi-public exhibit in the library, please contact projectunbreakable@uconn.edu no later than Friday, March 25.

Please note that anyone can choose to submit work anonymously.

UCONNSENT DAY
Monday, April 11
1:30 – 3:30 PM
Fairfield Way

Join us, along with our many campus partners, at Residential Life’s third annual UConnsent Day. Activities featured at the event will offer skills for creating and fostering healthy relationships and preventing sexual violence on campus.

TAKE BACK THE NIGHT
Wednesday, April 13
7:00 PM
Student Union Ballroom

An evening of empowerment and healing for survivors of gender-based violence. Join in our solidarity march, speak-out, and late night coffee house.
