The University is committed to protecting community safety and supporting victims and survivors of sexual assault, intimate partner violence and stalking. Under UConn’s Policy Against Discrimination, Harassment, and Related Interpersonal Violence, all employees who witness or receive a disclosure of sexual violence, relationship violence or stalking involving students must immediately report to the Office of Institutional Equity (OIE). This allows the University to offer a range of resources and options to impacted students. Employees who are empowered by law to maintain confidentiality within Student Health and Wellness are exempted from reporting. Exceptions also exist for disclosures made during public speak-out events and in connection with course assignments submitted to instructors.

WHAT to do

- Listen without judgment and offer your support. “I’m sorry that this happened. I appreciated your telling me and would like to help. Is there anything I can do that would be most helpful to you right now?”

- Inform the student early in your conversation that while your conversation will be private, it will not be confidential, given your status as a Responsible Employee. The University takes these matters very seriously and after your conversation, you will be calling an office that can help, the Office of Institutional Equity (OIE). If you are a Campus Security Authority (CSA), you also will be notifying UConn Police. The person disclosing will have choices after that about whether to talk with OIE or Police or engage with any other offices — that will be their decision.

- Address any medical concerns. Inform the student of the importance of preserving evidence. A student does not need to make a report or press charges to receive medical care.

- Strongly encourage the student to report directly to both police and OIE themselves.

- Connect the student to resources (see reverse), including titleix.uconn.edu. “There are a number of places on and off campus that can provide you with help, information and support. Detailed information is contained online at titleix.uconn.edu. Available resources include counseling, or discussing the need for adjustments to courses, work or living situations.”

- Report the information to OIE. “I know this was hard to share with me. I am now going to make a report to the Office of Institutional Equity, an office that can help. I can make the call or you can, while I sit with you. The University will reach out to you to offer assistance and options.”

WHAT NOT to do

- Do NOT promise confidentiality. You are not able to keep information confidential, and you should never promise confidentiality. You should instead offer privacy and discretion.

- Do NOT tell the student that because they asked you not to tell anyone or report the incident to the institution, you will not. As a Responsible Employee, you are obligated to report the incident to OIE.

- Do NOT offer or attempt to investigate the information shared with you or mediate the situation between the people involved.

What Happens Next?

OIE, Community Standards and/or other appropriate University offices will assist the student with any immediate concerns, such as safety and housing or classroom arrangements, connect the student to on- and off-campus resources, and determine the appropriate investigatory action in response to the report.

Reporting Sexual Harassment

All university community members are strongly encouraged to report all incidents of sexual harassment to OIE. Deans, Directors, Department Heads and Supervisors MUST report incidents of sexual harassment involving employees to OIE.

Sexual harassment is any unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature. It can include unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Sexual harassment also may include inappropriate touching, suggestive comments and public display of pornographic or suggestive calendars, posters, or signs where such images are not connected to any academic purpose. All forms of sexual and sex-based harassment and discrimination are considered serious offenses by the University.
